Eddie doesn't want to celebrate Christmas until Mr. Jolly comes along. Children in different countries celebrate holidays in different ways.

- In Austria, children receive a toy pig with a four-leaf clover in its mouth for luck.
- In Vietnam, New Year's is celebrated in January or February.
- In Russia, Grandfather Frost gives children gifts on New Year's Day.
- Jewish people celebrate Rosh Hashanah in September.

Use the library or computer to find another holiday that people celebrate, either in your country or another one. Write down what you find.
