Debbie Dadey Book Trivia Directions:

1. Cut out the different trivia questions and put them on your bulletin board.
2. Encourage students to read the books to find the answers.

Ideas for encouraging the students:

- Have a contest to see which student can get the most answers correctly in a specified amount of time.
- Set up small reading groups for each of the books and have students work together to find their answer.
- Get other classes at your school involved. Have a competition to see which class can answer all the questions first.
- Have a question of the week and encourage all the students to find the answer.
- Read the book aloud to the class and then see how many kids can answer the question when you are done with the book.

Answers:

- |                        |                         |                                       |
