Debbie Dadey wants to visit your school!

As a former first grade teacher and school librarian, Debbie knows the limits of schools budgets and will work with you to make it happen!

► School visits

A former teacher and librarian, Debbie enjoys visiting schools to talk about writing and to encourage the love of reading.

- "You have such great energy, sense of humor and insight into kids. You're really good at what you do." Barb Langridge Howard Co. Public Library Columbia, MD
- "Words can not express the gratitude that Valencia has for you. The children and staff can't stop talking about your fabulous presentation." Alyssa Golden Valencia, CA.

Kindergarten and First

Debbie uses an interactive skit and puppet to bring the writing process alive for younger students. 45-60 minutes is recommended.

Second and Third:

Debbie captures students attention with the story of how she began writing about a bad day. She shares where she gets ideas, how she works with a co-author, illustrators, and editors. She discusses what's it like to write stories with her children and her dogs! 45 to 60 minutes .
